

Capital Letters and Full Stops

Proof-read the following passage. Copy it out and correct all the mistakes — there are 20 mistakes altogether. % or more will get you into Punctuation Paradise.

Smile Catcher is a terrifying man with eyes like golf balls that stick out from his face like a frog. he works at night and is paid £1.00 by ivor ugly, his wicked boss, for every smile he catches he catches smiles by making you feel lonely, sad or angry so, if you fall out with your friends, and end up playing alone or kick the cat because you don't get your own way, the smile catcher wins and is paid £1.00 unfortunately, the smile catcher is a very wealthy man and is thinking of retiring to cornwall with his money to dream of unhappy children as he eats ice cream on the beach only we can stop him!

So, jimmy saucer and robert spoon,
you'd better make friends soon.

Rachel Mousemat and your sister Sue, you'd better stop your arguing too.

let's put the smile catcher out of business!

